In the Face of Still Advancing Prices

OUR MUSLINWEAR SALES HAVE ALWAYS BEEN TRIUMPHS on the side of quality and economy, and have earned a high place in the estimation of New Jersey women. A mere announcement would bring throngs, but read on and learn wherein this event overtops every muslinwear sale we have had, and come prepared to buy more largely and to save more emphatically than ever before. HIGHER COST AND SCARCETY are the great handicaps this year-muslins, cambrics, nainsook, laces, embroideries, and labor cost more than three months ago, when we placed our orders, and will cost more in the immediate future.

Reliable materials are scarce, mills are way behind in their orders, new patterns in laces and embroideries are hard to get. Yet in this sale materials are as good as ever, every inch of trimming is new and the workmanship is up to our standard.
